“Celebrating 9 Years of Mobility”

Annual Amputees Helping Amputees Health Fair & Picnic

Saturday, Aug. 28, 2010

Jefferson-Patterson Park

Noon to 5 p.m. (Rain or Shine)

FREE FOR EVERYONE

- Our Health Fair includes diabetes management, free vascular & blood pressure screenings
- Numerous vendor displays
- Great food provided by Randy's Ribs Catering and a live band
- Activities for children

Come out to the country. Located along the shores of the Patuxent River, Jefferson-Patterson Park in Saint Leonard, Maryland is a state history and archeological museum. Explore Segway and wheelchair-friendly paved, woodland pathways that are accessible to restrooms and water fountains along the way, a historic Indian village, acres of working farm land, restored farm buildings as-well-as museum exhibits. So, get away for a fun-filled, relaxing country afternoon.
