ABOUT THE TEAMS

Team USA - The USA Softball Women’s National Team has a record of 24-4 over the last three Olympic Games including 9-0 at the 2004 Athens Olympic Games, outscoring opponents 51-1. The team broke 16 records in the 2004 games. On top of three Olympic Gold Medals, the U.S. women are eight-time World Champions and two-time World Cup Champions. Pitchers Jennie Finch, Monica Abbott and Cat Osterman and outfielder Jessica Mendoza lead the 2008 squad. Their website is www.usasoftball.com.

Washington Glory - The Washington Glory is a championship professional woman’s fastpitch softball team competing in the National Pro Fastpitch (NPF) league, an official development partner of Major League Baseball. The Glory ended their inaugural 2007 campaign with a league-leading 34-10 record, going on to make history by sweeping undefeated through the Championship Series. Their website is www.washingtonglory.com.
